Happy 9th Anniversary Raining Hope!

On 9-9-09 we officially became Raining Hope Ministries! Eydie’s call to Uganda came in 2006. After joining a mission’s trip at the end of

New Sign Post!

2006, Psalms 10 & Living Hope Children’s Home was established under the direction of Devo Marshall to address the injustice & needs that were discovered. Eydie resigned her job as a church administrator on October 16, 2007 to serve voluntarily with Devo & Psalms 10. Due to health issues with Devo’s son, Micah, he turned the ministry over to Eydie. With a renewed vision we re-launched our ministry with the current name, “RAINING HOPE” on 9-9-09! We are committed to helping the twenty five children of the Raining Hope family realize their dreams and launch them into their careers. We have had two graduates, one from law school and another from beautician school. This December we have two in nursing & one in broadcasting that will be graduating from their courses! Thanks to all of our supporters over the past eleven and a half years for your prayers, support & encouragement. You are all loved & appreciated! Hope is alive in Uganda!!

before WIDE in a Movement going in the RIGHT direction living with highest integrity!" Thank you for joining us with your prayers & support!

We have a growing Children's Ministry to the community. We meet on Sunday mornings and Saturday afternoon. We outgrew the garage area and now have the children meeting outside in the front lawn under one of the tents. Average number of children on Sunday is 70-80 each week. On Saturday we have 45-50 children who come for training and Bible Study.
